Scholarships are awarded on the basis of financial need, and additional information to be completed below. NNS does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin. All information given on this form is strictly confidential. Please provide proof of income (tax return or copies of two months pay stubs).

- Full and partial scholarships are available.
- A point system of criteria is used to assist a social worker from the Community Action Center in determination of amounts of scholarships awarded.
- Highest priority for scholarship money will be awarded to those families with the highest financial need based on income up to 250% of poverty level.
- One consideration is income; however, extenuating circumstances which may cause significant hardship for a family shall be taken into consideration (major illness in the family, twins attending nursery school, etc.)
- For a family of four, 250% of poverty is $55,125 as of January 2010.
